My dear Mr Vianna:

I am writing to inform you that the two little volumes, Raça e Assimilação and Populações, which you were kind enough to send me arrived safely. The dedication of the author has made them a very precious possession. I intend to see that all your writings and those of other Brazilian writers in this field are called to the attention of our students. I wish, also, to take this opportunity to express my very real sense of gratitude to you and to all the people of Brazil, with whom I have come in contact, for the kindness and courtesy with which they have welcomed us, Mrs Park and myself, in this country which was a few days ago so strange and new but now seems so familiar and friendly, like an old acquaintance.

It is possible we shall not be able to visit your country again but we shall always retain a very vivid and happy memory of it.

very cordially

Robert E. Park
